

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I take the privilege to convey my sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to my respected supervisor Dr. V. P. Singh, associate professor, Department of Sociology, Assam University, Silchar for his excellent co-operation, valuable suggestions and able guidance he rendered which helped me to accomplish the research work successfully.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my respected Co-supervisor Dr. S. C. Joshi, Assistant Director, NIPCCD, Khanapara, Guwahati who encouraged me to proceed this research work with more vigor and seriousness by giving necessary suggestions required during the research work.

My deepest gratitude is due to my wife Dulumani Mazumdar who put up with all inconvenience caused by the study of this nature with immense patience. My daughter TANISHQUA (Barbie) deserves a special mention, as she did not receive due attention at a tender age owing to my pre-occupation with this study.

I would also like to thank Shri T. Dung Dung Sir, Dr. Baishya Sir and my friends Yamin Hassan, Jutika Devi, Arpita Dutta, and Nur Nahar Begum for their support and co-operation which I received during the course of this work.

I acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to all respondents, president/secretary of the SHGs, who spared their valuable time and shared their confidential information.

I also thank the concerned block officials, bank officials of different commercial banks and Regional Rural Banks (RRBs) in both the blocks and Mr. Ananda Kumar Das, executive secretary of “Human Resource Development Foundation of South Kamrup” , Mirza, for their constant support and providing the information regarding the SHGs.

Finally, I am especially grateful to my parents for their constant encouragement and moral help.
