

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This extract is dedicated in the name of those, who helped me and guided me throughout to build a strong foundation in this particular field of Sociological Studies. Their generous aid and valuable suggestion has made this work possible to come into reality.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and thanks to Prof. V.P.Singh, Professor & Head of Centre for Globalization and Development Studies, Allahabad, for his continuous guidance, without which the study could not have been possible.

I express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Gopaliji Mishra, Dean of Social Science & Head of Department of Social Work, Assam University, Silchar for his generous support and help

I also extend my gratitude to Dr. Roopa Rani T.S., Department of Education for her guidance while completing my study.

I owe my Special Thanks to all the Respondents of Bijoypur Village and Silchar Town as well, for giving their selfless help while getting all the data and information related to my work. Mention may be made of especially Bikramjit Barman, Kalidasa Barman, Ninad Shankar Barman and Bhaskarjyoti Barman.

The Present work is mainly based on field work where data collection is an important aspect. Miss Momota Barman; Revenue Serestardar and Mr. Debashish Barman; L.D. of Deputy Commissioner Office, Cachar District helped me a lot, without their kind cooperation information of the study area would not have been possible. They helped me a lot to provide some valuable documents and information on Barman Tribe, Barman Village and Silchar Town.

I am thankful to Mr. Mukul Barman, Biswajyoti Barman, Bidhan Barman for helping me in gathering all the information related to my study in Silchar Town.

Lastly, I wish to express my gratitude to my parents and my sisters for always having confidence in me, encouraging me throughout this course.
