

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. Bijaya Kumar Behera, for giving me guidance and suggestion. Without his support, I could not have completed my research work.

I am grateful to all teachers of Department of Sociology, Assam University, for their encouragement and suggestions. Office staff of Department of Sociology Mr. Ajoy Roy, Mr. Atindra Malakar, Mrs Amita Yadav and Mr. Ranjit Nunia who greatly helped me during my research work. I am very much thankful to all of them.

I utter my thanks to all the women members of Self-help Groups of Sonari development Block, without whom the study would have not been completed. They eagerly spent their time with me, co-operated with me, shared their views and treated me with much hospitality.

I am also thankful to the officials of district, block, banks and Gaon Panchayats. They sincerely co-operated with me and helped me to conduct my research work by giving my research related information.

During my research period, my friend Mintu Chutia gave me lots of help, support, co-operation and encouragement. I am very much grateful to him. My heartfelt thanks to all my friends who continuously helped me to complete my research work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my family members, brother Balin Konwar, Dhabal Giri Konwar, Chintu Konwar; sister Debajyoti konwar, Gitali Konwar; Elora Konwar and brother in law Mr. Dhruba Saikia. Their support, encouragement and blessings assisted me to complete my research work.
