Acknowledgement

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my Supervisor, Professor Bijaya Kumar Behera for his invaluable input, guidance and encouragement without which I could not have completed my research work.

I would like to thank all the teachers and staffs of Department of Sociology, Assam University, for their suggestions and support.

My sincere thanks go to authorities and staffs of Jawaharlal Nehru Institute of Medical Sciences, Imphal East, District Hospital, Churachandpur and District Hospital, Bishnupur for granting me permission to collect data for my research work in their respective hospitals.

Most importantly, I would like to thank all the doctors and patients who have participated in the study for their co-operation, without which the research would not be possible.

I owe my sincere gratitude to Professor Th. Achouba and Profesor L.Usharani Devi for their inspiration and encouragement to conduct my research work.

I would also like to thank former Director of RIMS, Professor S. Sekhorjit Singh for his kind permission to take up my research work. I am also thankful to all my colleagues in the Department of Community Medicine, RIMS for their co-operation and encouragement throughout the study.

I also like to thank Dr. W.Ibochaoba Singh for his unconditional support. I give my special thanks to Dr. Shantikumar for his statistical guidance.
