ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The problem of acknowledgements in a work of this sort is immense. Yet the thesis would not be complete without the researcher's thanks to some of the many people who made it possible.

At the very outset I am ever grateful to my supervisor Professor Adarasupally Nataraju for significant suggestions and real encouragement. He has given me valuable and stimulating suggestions from time to time during the continuance of my Ph. D.

I am sincerely grateful to all the faculty of the Department of philosophy, Assam University, Silchar- Late Prof. Gautam Biswas, Dr. Subhra Nag, Dr. Nirmali Barman, Dr. Pius V. Thomas, Munmun Chakraborty and former faculty of the Department Dr. Ramchandra Mazhi, Dr. Bhaskarjit Neog for encouraging me to complete my work.

I express my gratitude to the ICPR (Indian Council of Philosophical Research), New Delhi, for awarding me JRF for two years. This helped me to collect materials and carry out research across India. I also thank the staff of Assam University library, K.K.H. Gauhati University library, ICPR Lucknow library, Benaras Hindu University departmental library and Nehru Memorial library, Delhi.

My thanks also go to my friend Manik, Research Scholar, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT Bombay, who has provided both suggestions and materials of rare usefulness. I am especially grateful to Ranadeep Dutta, Guest Faculty of the Department of English, and Niruka, Guest Faculty of the Department of Education, Assam University, Silchar who with great competence rendered invaluable editorial assistance.

I am deeply grateful to my family members' sister Pujarani Chutia and brother-in-law Dr. Kusumbar Dutta without whose support and encouragement the completion of this work would not have been possible.

Most of all I am indebted to my parents Naren Chutia and Puspa Lata Lahon Chutia, without whose love and sacrifice neither life nor work would bring fulfilment. They have given me words of consolation when I needed them most. To them the thesis is dedicated.
