Acknowledgement

Undertaking this PhD has been a truly life-changing experience for me and it would not have been possible to do without the support and guidance that I received from many people.

I am extremely grateful to (Late) Prof. Th.R.Tiba, who had inspired me to take this research, whom is no more with us. I truly remember him in this moment.

I would like to first say a big thank you to my supervisor Dr Mahua Bhattacharjee, Department of History, Assam University, Diphu Campus. Without the support, encouragement, inspiration and continuous supervision of Dr. Bhattacharjee madam, this study would not have been possible. The joy and enthusiasm she has for the research was contagious and motivational for me, even during tough times in the ph.D. pursuit.

It is exactly in the same degree of interest to my co-supervisor Dr. Binayak Dutta, Department of History, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, Maghalaya. Without the support, encouragement, inspiration and continuous supervision of Dr. Dutta sir, this study would not have been possible.

I express my sincere gratitude and thanks to Prof. & Head, Dr. Paul B. Chanzik Head, Department of History, Assam University, Diphu Campus for his deep concern and inspiration offered to me.

I also express my earnest thanks to Dr. Prafulla Nath, Dr. Suryasikha Pathak and Dr. Kh. Narendra Singh, faculty, Assam University, Diphu Campus for their help and suggestions.

I express my sincere gratitude and thanks to Principal, Diphu Government College Diphu, Dr. Nirab kumar Sharma, for his deep concern and inspiration offered to me.

I express my sincere gratitude and thanks to my teachers and Departmental faculty of Diphu Gvernment College, Diphu, Karbi Anglong and special thanks to Prof. and Head Tado Terangpi and Prof Hingolal Singson for their valuable suggestions. I also deserved my sense of deep gratitude to Prof Aseem Kalita. I appreciate all his contributions of time, ideas, and funding to make my Ph.D. experience productive and stimulating. I am also thankful for excellent example he has provided me for completing my research work.

I also express my earnest thanks to Prof and Head Bharoti Thausan, Department of History, Haflong Government College, Dima-Hasau for accompanying with me in field survey in rural areas of Haflong for collecting primary data for my research work.

It is my humble duty to extend my thanks, though he is no more with us, Sri J.K. Thausan, Former APSC Member for his valuable information and who introduced me to persons interested in this field.

I take the opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to Director General of Archives and other staff of the National Archives of India, New Delhi; Dr. D. Sonowal, Director, Mr.H. Baishya, archivist and other staff of Assam State Archive, Guwahati; Asiatic Society Library, Kolkota; North East Social Research Centre, Guwahati and Staff of Assam University Library, Diphu Campus. Without their exemplary co-operation and valuable help, I would not able to complete the work in scheduled time.

I must also thanks to village head, Mr Bodtri Girisa of Mohongdijuwa and Jakson Maibangsa of Diphu, Amulapatty for their cooperative attitude in taking interviews with them and for visiting with me in Dimasa interiors of the Karbi Anglong district.

It is my humble duty to extend my thanks to my respondents of Dima-Hasau district and Karbi Anglong district of Assam for their co-operation and interest shown to my work.

I take opportunity to thanks members of Dimasa Sahitya Sabha ,Dhansiri Branch for giving me some firsthand data in this respect and a special thanks to Mr Nojendra Nunisa, member of Dimasa Sahitya Sabha. Diphu Branch.

Lastly I would like to thank my family for all their love and encouragement. For my brothers and sisters in laws who has take care of my eight years daughter during the final stages of this ph.D. is appreciated. Especially for my younger brother Sunil Hasnu who spent sleepless nights in arranging my papers. I also deserve my thanks to my friends and well wisher for their help in preparing my task.

Thanks
