

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

ASSAM UNIVERSITY, SILCHAR

(A Central University Constituted Under Act XIII of 1989)

Silchar-788011, Assam, India

DECLARATION

I, S. Urirei Singh (Ph.D. Reg. No.- Ph.D/1343/2010, Date 24. 09. 2010), hereby declare that the thesis entitled, Koch Rajbanshi Identity and the “Dheyam” in Cachar (19th and 20th century) submitted by me under the guidance and research supervision of Dr. Projit Kumar Palit, Professor, Department of History, Assam University, Silchar is an original and independent research work. I also declare that, it has not been submitted previously in any part or in full to this University or any other University or institution for the award of any degree. This work is free from plagiarism.

The thesis is being submitted to Assam University for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in History.

Place:

Date:

(S. URIREI SINGH)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby take this humble opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to all those who have encouraged and helped me during the entire process of my research work.

First and foremost, I would like to convey my intellectual debt of gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. Projit Kumar Palit, Professor, Assam University, Silchar without whose guidance the research project would not have been completed in the stipulated time. I am highly grateful not only for his invaluable suggestions and constructive comments but also because of his never failing encouragement received all throughout my research period. It has been my privilege to work under such an articulate and pragmatic scholar. I also offer my thanks to all the respected Faculty Members of the Department of History, Assam University, Silchar for their support and suggestions.

I am thankful to the authorities of the Assam State Archives, Guwahati, West Bengal State Archives, Kolkata and the National Archives of India, New Delhi. I also acknowledge my heartiest thanks to Dr. Babachandra Singha, Head of the Department of History, Guru Charan College, Silchar for his invaluable suggestions. I am also indebted to the Dheyans in Cachar with whom I have interacted, for their co-operation and their hospitality leading to the collection of a number of valuable information which has been incorporated in my work. I must put on record my sincere thanks to all government and non-government agencies who has given me their valuable suggestions and the required materials. I extend my gratitude to the staff of the Indian Council of Historical Research Library, Guwahati, K.K.Handique Library of Gauhati University, the Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, the State Museum, Guwahati, Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change and Development, Guwahati, Central Library, Assam University, Silchar and District Library, Silchar which provided me the opportunity to use their library. I owe my gratitude to all the authors whose works I have consulted in course of the present study.

My deepest gratitude also goes to my family members. I am grateful to my parents Mr. S. Gouridas Singha and Mrs Sakhitombi Singha who have always stood by me and supported me in my academic endeavours. I also thank my in-laws Mr. K. Chandrakanta Singha and Mrs Subhasini Singha for their constant encouragement.

My special thanks go to my better half Mr. K Sachin Singha who is my constant source of inspiration, for sharing my pain equally in each and every occasion and without whose help the work would not have been possible. Last but not the least I would like to thank my little Aahaan who has always cheered me up in my moments of distress.

S. Urirei Singh

CONTENTS

	Page No.
Chapter - I Introduction	1-30
Chapter - II Political History of the Koch Kingdom	31-67
Chapter - III Migration and Settlement of the Dheyman in Cachar	68-86
Chapter -IV Identity Crisis of the Koch Rajbanshi	87-121
Chapter - V Socio – Cultural life of the Dheyman	122-141
Chapter - VI Conclusion	142-151
Bibliography	152-170
Appendix	171-203
List of Figures	204
Figures	205-206
List of Plates	207
Plates	208-219