

Department of History
Jadunath Sarkar School of Social Sciences
ASSAM UNIVERSITY, SILCHAR
(A Central University constituted under Act XIII of 1989)
Silchar-788 011, Assam, India

---

DECLARATION

I BEGAM ABIDA SULTANA, bearing Ph.D registration no.Ph.D/1023/09 dated 27.10.09 hereby declare that the subject matter of the thesis entitled GENDER AND SOCIETY: A STUDY OF CHANGE IN MUSLIM WOMEN IN COLONIAL SURMA VALLEY is the record of work done by me and that the content of this thesis has not been submitted previously for any other degree of this or any other university/ institution.

Place: Karimganj

Date- 30/05/14

Begam Abida Sultana
(Begam Abida Sultana)

Ph.D registration no. Ph.D/1023/ 09

Department of History

Assam University, Silchar

Acknowledgement

In pursuing this study, I have received immense help from various persons and agencies. I would like to record my gratitude to all of them in this space.

First of all, I owe deep sense of reverence to my research guide, Dr. Suryasikha Pathak Department of History, Assam University, Silchar for her constant inspiration, encouragement and co-operation. Her wide ranging knowledge and critical acumen have led to many improvements in the study.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to my co- supervisor B.Iswara Rao and who provided me with valuable secondary materials and instructed me on how to proceed with the project. I also record my deepest thankfulness to Prof Prajit Palit, HoD, Department of History and Prof Sajal Nag, who provide me their most remarkable suggestions and necessary co-operation.

I welcome this opportunity to thank all the faculty members of the History Department, Assam University, for their valuable suggestion and guidance at every stage of this study. I express my social thanks to all other staff of the History Department, Assam University, for their kind words and supports. I am also grateful to the concerned authority to grant me the Maulana Azad National Fellowship for pursuing this research work.

Besides this for the present work , most of the source materials have been collected from different archives and libraries in Calcutta, Guwahati, Delhi, Dhaka and Sylhet, Silchar such as the Assam University Library, Silchar, Silchar District Record Room, West Bengal State Archives, the National Library, Calcutta, the Asiatic Society, Calcutta, the Rabindra Bharati University Library, Calcutta, the Jhadavpur University library, Calcutta, State Archive, Guwahati, Gauhati University Library, Indian Council for Historical Research , Guawhati, Kendriya Muslim Sahitya Sangsad, Sylhet, The National Archive, Dhaka, The National Library, The Research and development Collective Centre, Dhaka, Dhaka University Library, Jagannath University Library, Jahangirnagar University Library, Murarichand College Library, District Public Library, Shahjalal University library, Poet Dilwar Sahitya Parishad, Sylhet, Brindaban College Library, Bangal Academy, Dhaka, I take this opportunity to thank all the Librarians and staff of these libraries for their help. I wish to record my grateful appreciation of kind cooperation from the staff of the Nehru Museum Library and the National Archives in New Delhi. I must express my gratitude to the Librarian Shah Alom, staff of the Kendriya Muslim Sahitya Sangsad and all the staffs of the Assam University Library.

I also express my gratitude to Najnin Begom, Giyasnagar, Maulavi bazaar, Sayeeda Shamsun Nahar Khatun, Sunamganj, Aftabun Nessa Khanam, Fenjuganj, Sylhet, Anowara Basit Choudhury, Sylhet, Malck Chand, Habiganj, Sultana Parvin, Habiganj, Dr. Saleha Khatun Choudhury, Fakhrun Nessa, Danmandi, Dhaka, Salma Choudhury, Khairun Nessa Choudhury, Rashidul Hussein Mazumdar, Badrul Hussein Mazamdar, Kulchuma Bibi, Hasina Begum, Abul Lais, A.K. Tapadar, Asmat Sultana, Swapna Choudhury, Abdur Rahman Choudhury and others for co-operating with me in conducting my research giving me in their valuable time and family documents without my research work would be incomplete. I also convey thanks to the Anowara Basit Choudhury as despite her old age, she wrote a dairy for me which is included with appendix.

I convey thanks to my friends who helped me come closer to the goal. I am thankful to Anurupa Biswas ( late) , Poet Sazzad Qadir, poet Dilwar, poet Kamran, poet Mahbuba Samsud Bulbul, Dr. Shelu Basit , Deputy Registrar ,Dhaka University, Dr. Abul Azad, Registrar, Jagirnagar University, Rahena Akhtar Sagufa, lecturer M.C College, Kamal Ahmed, Selim Aiwal, Poet and journalist, Dr Mesbah Kamal, Muzammil Ali Laskar, Abul Hussein Mazumdar, Dr. Kamal Uddin Ahmed, Dr. Sahab Uddin Ahmed, Dr.Sujit Biswas, Biswtush Dass for their interest and constant support in my research work.

My mother, Badrunessa Khanom guided me at every stage of my education and always provided encouragement, inspiration and mental strength. I am most grateful to my father, Hussain Ahmed whose firm determination and continuous encouragement helped me to complete this thesis. He would have been the happiest person to see this research done. But, unfortunately, he is no more. I remember him with a heavy heart and pay homage to his departed soul.

I record my deepest thankfulness to my husband, Dr. Muzibur Rahman Choudhury for his continuous support words of encouragement and most remarkable suggestions and necessary cooperation without which this work could not be done. I also convey thanks to my daughter Tasnim Nishat Choudhury and son Rounaq Arman Choudhury as my research kept me so absorbed that I could not provide enough care and time to them.

I am extremely grateful to my Younger brothers Sohail Ahmed, Mostafa Ahmed, and three nephews Jewel, Rubel, Rumel who provided me help during the time of research work. I am also extremely grateful to my brothers-in-law Abidur Rahman Choudhury and Habibur Rahman Choudhury for their words of encouragement and kind co-operation.

Contents

	Page
1. Acknowledgement	i-iii
2. Chapter 1- Introduction	1-25
3. Chapter 2- Gender Transformation in Muslim Societies in Colonial India.	26-50
4. Chapter 3- Women in Surma Valley	51-84
5. Chapter 4- Women Education in Surma Valley	85-108
6. Chapter 5- Muslim women and Social Change	109-138
7. Chapter 6- Muslim women and Public Sphere	139-162
8. Chapter 7- Conclusion	163-167
9. Bibliography	168-192
10. Appendixes	i-xxvii
(a) Photo Plates	i-v
(b) An autobiographical note by Anowara Basit	vi-vii
(c) Writings of the Muslim Women	viii-xv
(d) List of the educational institutions	xvi-xxiii
(e) Photos of the educational institutions	xxiv-xxvii