Dedicated to all the Women as the strength of women is not measured by the bearing all her hardships in life have had on her but by the extent of her refusal to allow those hardships to dictate her and who she becomes.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In full gratitude I would like to acknowledge the following individuals who encouraged, inspired, supported and assisted themselves to help my pursuit of Ph.D. degree.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude and a sincere thank to my Supervisor, Dr Shrabanti Maity, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Assam University for all the valuable time and efforts that she has provided in supervising this work. I would also like to thank her for carefully reading and commenting on countless revisions of this manuscript. Throughout my thesis-writing period, she provided encouragement, sound advice, good teaching, good company, and lots of good ideas. With her enthusiasm, her inspiration, and her great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, I had unforgettable experiences in completing my Ph.D. I would also like to thank her family members for regarding me as their own family.

I am also indebted to my Co-supervisor Professor Alok Sen for his insightful guidance in this research work. In spite of a tight schedule, he has been always there to listen and give advice. I am deeply grateful to him for the valuable discussions that helped me sort out the technical details of my work. I am also thankful to him for his timely support and encouragement which have helped me to complete my research work.

I also own my special gratitude to all the respected teachers of the Department of Economics for their insightful comments and constructive suggestions at different stages of my research that helped me improve my knowledge in the area. I am grateful to Professor Bipul Malakar and Professor Bani Prarsanya Misra, Professor M. Rajendro Singh for holding me to a high research standard and teaching me how to do research.

I am also thankful to the small team, without their help I would have not been able to complete my field survey. I feel blessed that I have met Brother Mang Haokip, Mercy Hmar and Kholi Pukeho because with their selfless support I was able to reach in the interior part of the survey area. I would like to thank each respondent for giving me a good deal of their precious time to an unknown researcher. They have kindly and warmly responded to all the queries during the interview. Moreover I would also like to extend my gratitude to the Chief of the villages for giving me the permission to carry out my survey in their villages. With their full co-operation I have completed the survey in time.

I would like to acknowledge Ajit Darr, Joint Director of Department for Development of Tribals & Scheduled Castes, Manipur. I want to show my gratitude to O. Jugindro Singh (Senior Technical Assistant) and Y. Thamkishore Singh (Director of Census Operations, Manipur) Directorate of Census Operations, Manipur and the staff of Tribal Research Institute for providing me valuable information which have help immensely in completing this thesis. I would also like to thank all the staff of the libraries and institution where I have visited during my research work.

I would like to extend my greatest gratitude to my family members. First, I want to thank my parents, Dr. Haobijam Shantikumar Singh and Ksh. Binokumari Devi for their love and support which encourage me to complete my research work. My sincere gratitude goes to my parents for giving me strength to reach for the stars and chase my dream. The hardship they have experience during my field survey which resulted in deteriorating their health condition. Despite of all this they have always provided me with their best guidance and support. Once more, I thank my parents for their love and believing in me.

I would also like to thanks my sisters, Sophia Haobijam, Sonia Haobijam and Jina Haobijam, my brother, Haobijam Victor and my sister in-law, Aleena Kaidem,for giving me love and support in time of distress during my research work.

I would like to thanks Sonia Haobijam for correcting the language and grammar of my writing of my thesis and Mr. Surya Kanta Das for helping me printing and binding the thesis with special care.

I would also like to thanks all my seniors, friends and colleagues for helping me to stay sane through these difficult years. Their support and care helped me to overcome setbacks and stay focused on my research work. I greatly value their friendship and I deeply appreciate their belief on me.

Last, but not the least, I want to thanks the Almighty for everything.
