ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis on 'Role of Press in Development of Raebareli Parliamentary Constituency - A Study of Hindi Newspapers' is a culmination of efforts, incessant moral and emotional support, and guidance of a lot of people including Prof. G.P. Pandey research supervisor, teachers, friends and colleagues. Like every scholar it was my desire to reach the apex of educational heights to set the paradigm and to reach the unreached.

I am extremely thankful to the Almighty to grace me to have Prof. G.P. Pandey, Head, Department of Mass Communication, Abanindannath Tagore School of Creative Arts and Communication Studies as my research guide. Prof. G. P. Pandey always encouraged and inspired me to pursue the thesis in print media. I express my deep gratitude for his inspirations, encouragements and guidance, as without his advice and guidance this task would have never been accomplished. His in-depth experiences and deep insights into social research, guided me to be focused and helped me immensely to keep my research study on right path.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. C. B. Sharma, Chairman and Dr. Kuldeep Agarwal, Director (Academics), National Institute of Open Schooling, NOIDA for his encouragements and considering myself as Course Coordinator (Mass Communication) in the NIOS by which I have been motivated to complete my Ph.D. I am thankful for their valuable academic guidance and inspirations from time to time for this study.

I also express my profound gratitude to Prof. Subhash Dhulia, Vice Chancellor, Utrakhand Open University, Haldwani (Nainital), Prof. B. Das, Jamia Milia Islamia, New Delhi, Prof. Hemant Joshi, IIMC, New Delhi, Prof. Sanjeev Bhanawat, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, Prof. Sudhir Gawane, Baba Saheb Ambedkar University, Aurangabad, Prof. Anil Kumar Upadhyay, Mahatma Gandhi Kashi Vidyapeeth, Varanasi, Prof. Bandana Pandey, Department of Advertising Management and Public Relations, GJUS&T, Hisar, Dr. O.P. Dewal, Associate Professor, IGNOU, New Delhi, Prof. Deepak Shinde, Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded, Dr. Harmesh Lal, Professor and Head, Educational TV, NCERT, New Delhi, Prof. Prabhakar Singh, NITTTR, Bhopal, Prof. Pradeep Mathur, IIMC, New Delhi. Prof. Chandan Gupta, EMMRC, Indore, Dr. Mohammad Fariyad, MANUU, Hyderabad and specially Dr. Durgesh Tripathi, Assistant Professor, GGSIPU, New Delhi for their encouragements and inspirations.

There are a lots of people who have helped me to complete my work, I beg my pardon if I have not missed their name in some way. All of you have been source of inspiration to look forward for a new horizon.

Dedicated to my mother

Smt. Prabha

Truth alone will endure, all the rest will be swept away before the tide of time. I must continue to bear testimony to truth even if I am forsaken by all.

Mine may today be a voice in the wilderness, but it will be heard when all other voices are silenced, if it is the voice of Truth.

Mahatma Gandhi

The Press is called the fourth estate. It is definitely a power, but to misuse that power is criminal.

Mahatma Gandhi

Keep your thoughts positive, because your thoughts become your words. Keep your words positive, because your words become your behavior.

Mahatma Gandhi

One of the objectives of a Newspaper is to understand the popular feeling and give expression to it; another is to arouse among the people certain desirable sentiments; the third is fearlessly to expose popular defects.

Mahatma Gandhi

Our first attempt should be directed towards the awakening in the minds of as many women as possible, a consciousness of their present condition

Mahatma Gandhi

Silence is the best Speech
