ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“All praise to Almighty Allah from whom all the blessings come, the most merciful and beneficent, the magnificent creator of creations, cherisher and sustainer of the worlds”

In the grand scheme of life, it seems that a thesis, a hundred page paper, is a minor and a very doable endeavor. But surprisingly, the process can be quite daunting. Thesis writing is not just an academic pursuit; it a very personal pursuit as well. Without the guidance and support of people, the ideas behind a thesis remain just ideas.

A thesis is never written in isolation and there are a number of people who have provided help and support along the way. I would like to begin first by thanking Prof. GAYAN PRAKASH PANDEY, HOD, Department of Mass Communication and former Dean, Ababnindranath Tagore School of Creative Arts and Communication Studies, who agreed to take on the supervision of this research. His benevolent guidance, meticulous supervision and continued encouragement in execution of my work were primarily responsible for this accomplishment. His pedagogic and scholastic acumen is doubtlessly remarkable and extraordinary. Working under his noble guidance, has been a great source of inspiration to me.

I also want to extend my thanks to Dr. RAGHAVENDRA MISHRA, Assistant Prof. Dept. of Mass Communication, who co-supervised this research, and particularly for his careful and incisive reading of my work, constructive comments, criticisms and suggestions for improving the various drafts of this thesis.

I am highly thankful to Dr. Abdul Quddoos, Associate Professor Department of Arabic, Maulana Azad National University, Hyderabad for his valuable suggestions whenever I approached him. His efficiency, his instructive spirit and his talent are of course matchless.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Ehtesham Ahmad Khan HOD Mass Communication and Journalism, MANUU, Hyderabad. I sincerely express my ecstatic thanks to Dr. Mohd. Fariyad, Associate Prof. Dept. of Mass Communication and Journalism, MANUU, Hyd. And Dr. Shahida, Associate Prof. Dept. of Women's Studies, MANUU, Hyd. and Murtaza Hasan Madni Jaunpur, Mr. Wasiullah Ansari for their incessant endearment and constant help throughout my research work.

Whole hearted thanks to Mr. Arif Moin and Zarwatul Hadi, for providing a helping hand, and being a good friend, thoughtful, and always ready to help.

I cannot forget the help rendered by Special thanks to my friends; Abdul Wahid, Akhtar Hussain, Md. Murteza, Mohd. Sarfraz, for their unequivocal support throughout, as always, for which my mere expression of thanks likewise does not suffice.

I see this as one of the most difficult part of the dissertation as so many people helped me get to this point. For brevity's sake I will only mention a few. I would not be able to do justice with lot of people who have contributed in one way or the other, so I would just say 'Thank you'. Please forgive me if I left you out.

During the research work I consulted several libraries situated in different part of the country. I express my heartfelt thanks to the Director, librarian and staff of the following libraries: Khuda Bakhsh Oriental library Patna, Bihar, Maulana Azad Library, AMU, Aligarh, Asiatic Society library Kolkata, National Library Kolkata, Central Library MANUU, Hyderabad and Allama Shibli Library; Nadwatul Ulama, Lucknow etc. without their cooperation and help really it was very impossible for me to compile this thesis.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the faculties' and the employs of the Department of Mass Communication, AUS without their support this work would not have been completed.

Lastly, words are insufficient to express my respect and thankfulness for my Mother, Mother in law, my wife, and other family members particularly my brothers Abu Talib and Zakir Hussain for their continued support and involvement. Their pride in seeing a job well done is virtually unparalleled. I am beholden for their invaluable contribution in finalizing this thesis. Before I finish I intend to extend love to my little newborn baby Najeeb Sabir, whose smile was a constant source of encouragement and joy during strenuous hours of research work.
