

Department of Mass Communication

Abanindranath Tagore School of Creative Arts and Communication Studies

Assam University, Silchar

(A Central University constituted under Act XIII of 1989) Silchar - 788 011, Assam, India

DECLARATION

I, Indukant Dixit, bearing Registration No. Ph.D/1981/2012, Dated 01/10/2012 hereby declare that the subject matter of the thesis entitled “Mutual Perceptions of Role Performance: A Study of Political Leaders and Media Persons in Jharkhand” is a record of work done by me and that the contents of this thesis did not form the basis for award of any degree to me or to anybody else to the best of my knowledge. The thesis has not been submitted in any other University / Institute.

Date: 13.11.2014

Place: Silchar

Indukant Dixit

Ph.D. Scholar

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

There have been numerous invaluable blessings, motivations and encouragements in my life which have led me to complete my doctoral thesis.

First and foremost, I would like to pay my obeisance to the almighty, who gave me this beautiful life to live, to serve, to pray and to achieve. Had he not given me this opportunity, I would not have seen this beautiful creation of His and completion of Ph.D would have been a dream unrealised.

I would pray Lord Kashi Vishwanath ji, Sankatmochan Hanuman ji and Sarva Shakti Samnviya Bhagawati Vaishnavi Devi ji for giving me this life, motivation and energy to do my PhD for the cause of good to society and the country.

While remembering my Gurus, I always remember the famous couplet of great Saint Kabir:

“Guru Govind dou khade, kaake lagoon paayein,

Balihari guru aapne, Govind diyo batay!”

Thereby meaning that if, I had to choose between the Ishwar and the Guru, I would prefer the Guru as it is he who will ultimately guide me to achieve the Gyan Swaroop, Parambrahma (the Almighty, who himself is the embodiment of truth and knowledge).

My mother Late Smt. Sharda Devi has been my first Guru in whose affectionate lap I have learnt to see this world as it is. Her words of inspiration motivated me to do something extraordinary in my life. I firmly believe that my mother’s soul is there to motivate and reenergize me to accomplish the objectives of my life. I pay my obeisance to my beloved mother from the core of my heart.

I would like to pay my sincere gratitude to my father, who has been my teacher, philosopher and guide since my childhood and has been my life’s role model. I am fortunate that for my principles and philosophy of life, I had not to look for people in the external world and I got it in the form of my own father. I am in the field of Journalism because of my father’s inspiration while none else ever had joined this field in my family. I am lucky enough to have learnt Shrimad Bhagawat of Vedvyas and Shrimad Bhagwat Geeta of Lord Shri Krishna from my father. Now a days I am learning Manusmriti from him.

It would not have been possible to write this doctoral thesis without the constant help and unconditional support of the people in and around me. I render my heartfelt gratitude to some of them in particular, to mention all of them won't be possible.

At the very outset, with a deep sense of reverence I express my sincere gratitude to my learned supervisor Prof. (Dr.) K.V. Nagaraj but for whose valuable guidance, affectionate help and prompting encouragement, my this venture of achieving doctorate in Mass Communication would have remained a mere dream. He always exhorted me to work on and on until it reached its fruition. I highly acknowledge his guidance and uninterrupted support throughout my research work. I could not have asked for a better guide and mentor for my Ph.D thesis. It is true, beyond any shadow of doubt that it is he and he alone who in the real sense, is my academic mentor.

My cordial word of deepest admiration and gratefulness goes to Sh MK Razdan, CEO and the Chief Editor, The Press Trust of India, for his blessings and guidance in my odds. He has been a source of inspiration in the world of journalism for me. It is because of his cooperation that I could complete my doctoral work without any hindrance.

I pay great respect and my sincere gratefulness to Sh Balbir Dutt, the Chief Editor of Ranchi Express, Sh Ramkripal Singh, the former Senior Executive Editor, Nav Bharat Times, Dr. Rita Shukla, the member of Sahitya Academy, Delhi and Smt Sarita Pandey, Senior Journalist for their encouragement and guidance in doing my doctoral work.

Above all I am deeply grateful to my life partner, my better half, my alter ego i.e my sweet wife, Dr. (Smt) Sushma Dixit, who went on shouldering all kinds of domestic responsibilities herself and never disturbed me during my sedentary pursuits rather inspired me to work on incessantly. She has always stood by me and encouraged me to rise high in my academic career in the teeth of all hard circumstances and different hurdles of life. She has been a true companion in my life and I have achieved several firsts only after she joined me as my life partner. So once again I salute her for the help, cooperation and motivation.

I would especially like to thank my little kids Advait Dixit and Krishnadvait Dixit for their love, encouragement, and steady support. I really love them a lot and owe them a lot.

In particular, I would like to thank my motherly elder sister, Dr. Priyamvada Pandey, who has been my mentor since my childhood and has always been my guide and well-wisher. You are the salt of the earth, and I undoubtedly could not have done this without you. My mere expression of thanks likewise does not suffice. I am also grateful to my elder brother -in-law, Advocate Rajendra Kumar Pandey, who has always been there to help us and support us in moments of crisis.

I am also thankful to my niece Anukampa Pandey who suggested me to analyse my data on SPSS and Divya Pandey and her husband Vivek Pandey for their constant support. They have been the cheer leaders of our family.

I thank my younger sister and friend Hemprabha Upadhyay, her husband Dr. Ashish Kumar Upadhyay and my beloved nephews Kshitij and Akshat for their love and support in all the achievements of my life.

Then the completion of this thesis is the sweet fruit of the blessings of my revered father-in-law Sh. Musafir Dubey and my loving mother-in-law Smt. Sushila Dubey, the paragon of feminine loveliness whom I can never dare thank formally. I render my heartfelt gratitude to them, who have always stood by me in times of difficulty.

The fine advice, support and friendship of Ms Kavita Pant, my former senior colleague in PTI, Sh. Ashok Upadhyay, Senior Journalist, UNI, New Delhi, Sh Jagjitan Pandey ji, Secretary, Dharm Sangh Shiksha Mandal, Varanasi, Dr. Amarjyoti Singh and others have been invaluable on both academic and personal fronts, for which I am highly indebted. You have inspired me to work hard and rejuvenated confidence in my abilities which I will carry for the rest of my life. Thank you for being such an integral part of my personal and professional life.

Completing this work would have been all the more difficult were it not for the support and logistical help provided by the good friends of Assam, Central University and Press Trust of India, where I work as a journalist.

Finally, I would like to pay my obeisance to my teacher of Central Hindu School, Varanasi, late Durga Prasad Tripathi, pay gratitude to Dr Baldeo Raj Gupta, the former head of Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, BHU and Prof. Pradeep Chandra Shukla, Department of Education, BHU for encouraging me to pursue PhD and taught me to live to serve the society.

Again few people who have always acted as mentors of mine and motivated me always to climb the high peaks of academic worthiness are Prof. Anil Upadhyay, HOD, Journalism and Mass Communication, Mahatma Gandhi Kashi Vidyapeeth (MGKV), Prof. Omprakash Singh, Director, Hindi Patrakarita Sansthan, MGKV, Prof. Santosh Kumar Tewari, Dean and Head of Department of Journalism and Mass Communications, Central University of Jharkhand (CUJ) and Prof GP Pandey, HOD, Mass Communication and Journalism, Assam University. They have always paved the path for my future progress, kindled in me the lights of learning and showered their blessings on me. I am highly grateful to them.

Further, it is my heart's sincere desire to express my thankfulness to Dr. Raghavendra Mishra, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Assam University and his wife Smt Priyanka Mishra for their sustained support and cooperation in accomplishing my work of Ph.D.

I also feel proud to thank my Guru of practical journalism Sh Kumar Dinesh ji, a Senior Journalist, for making me a courageously truthful journalist. I also pay my obeisance to my senior colleague of AJ news paper late Smt Vinaypuri Pandey ji for her truthful guidance and love and affection during my early days of professional journalism.

It is significant to render my sincere thanks to my friends and colleagues Sh PV Ramanujam, PTI, Ranchi, Shakti Sharan Singh, Advocate Rajesh Anand, Shruha Mukherjee, Director, Times School of Journalism, Delhi, Arun Pandey, Executive Producer, Zee Business, New Delhi, Harigovind Vishwakarma, output head at TV-9, Mumbai, Shamshad Khan, Senior Executive and renowned researcher, Cvoter and Abdul Mannan, Editor, Quantitative team, Cvoter, Dr. Manoj Singh, Associate Professor, VIPS, Delhi, Dr. Sunil Mishra, Assistant Professor, VIPS, Delhi and Ankit Sharma, Assistant Professor, VIPS, Delhi for their timely and invaluable help in my scholarly venture.

Further, it is my sincere desire to express my thankfulness to Pradeep Sinha, senior assistant, Journalism Department, Assam University, Sanjay Singh, Senior Reporter, Cleanmediatoday, Varanasi, Arvind Kesari, Reporter, Cleanmediatoday, Varanasi, Manoj Singh, Journalist Kashish News, Jharkhand and Pankaj Kumar, Reporter Cleanmediatoday, who all have provided me with all kinds of necessary help pertaining to this research project. I acknowledge the special efforts put in by Rajeev Ranjan and Surya Kanta Das in typing as well as assimilating my research tables for my work.

Again I feel it to be my duty to express my thankfulness to hundreds of MPs, MLAs, politicians, party presidents and editors, correspondents, reporters, journalists of various print and electronic media whom I contacted during my research work and they all have responded promptly. It is great that they took time and with all the patience filled up my long questionnaire and gave their interviews. A special word of thank is necessary for Shashwat Dube for his helping hand in my efforts of collection of data.

I thank all those individuals of different places wherever I visited for providing me with all sorts of help in making available to me the required books, journals, newspapers, and other research material in different forms.

At the end I thank all those who helped me in feeding data, typing and proofreading as well as all those who howsoever have helped in completion of my Ph.D work well in time. To top it all, I owe much to my several sincere friends who have ever wished me highly and warmly in this academic pursuit.

Date: 13-11-2014

Indukant Dixit

LIST OF CONTENTS

Chapter – 1 Introduction	1
Background	2
History of Jharkhand	2
Polity of Jharkhand	4
British Rule	4
Jharkhand Movement	6
Jharkhand a separate state	8
Greed for power	9
Nine governments in 14 years and now	11
Made in India	14
The historical context	14
Anglo-Indian and Evangelical Journals	16
Foreign media in India	21
More than mere propaganda	21
Comprehensive debarring law	23
Blood and breasts journalism	27
Writing is creativity not automation	29
Media in Jharkhand	30
Statement of the problem	32
Aims and objectives	33
References	33

Chapter – 2 Review of Literature	35
Framing theory and media agenda setting	50
Media, gender and popular culture in India	51
References	52
Chapter – 3 Research Methodology	55
Methodology	55
Survey method of research	55
Refine and test questions	58
Sample size	59
Sampling	60
Convenience sampling method	60
Research tools	60
Statistical tools	60
Sources of data collection	61
Research Plan	61
Scope of study	61
Theoretical framework of the study	62
Sources of data	64
Geographical area of work	65
Profile of the respondents in the research	65
Profile table: 1	65

Profile table: 2	66
Profile table: 3	66
Profile table: 4	67
Profile table: 5	67
Profile table: 6	67
Profile table: 7	68
Operational definition of major terms used	68
Research questions	72
Reference	73
Chapter – 4 Data Presentation and Analysis	75
Table D-1.1 to D-1.26 and their analysis	75
Table D-2.1 to D-2.26 and their analysis	114
Table D-3.1 to D-3.26 and their analysis	141
Table D-4.1 to D-4.26 and their analysis	175
Table D-5.1 to D-5.26 and their analysis	202
Table D-6.1 to D-6.26 and their analysis	229
Table D-7.1 to D-7.26 and their analysis	256
Chapter – 5 Summary, Conclusion and Recommendations	283
Summary	284
Conclusion	288
Answers to research questions	288

Statement snippets	290
Limitations of the study	292
Recommendations	292
Bibliography	293
Questionnaire	304
Publication	317-323

LIST OF GRAPHS

			Page No.
1	D1.1	Reasons for political instability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	76
2	D1.2	Reasons for Jharkhand's separation from Bihar and age-wise distribution of respondents	78
3	D1.3	Opinion on state of affairs in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	79
4	D1.4	Reasons for Jharkhand lagging behind in development and age-wise distribution of respondents	81
5	D1.5	Reasons for no political party getting a majority in the State Assembly and age-wise distribution of respondents	82
6	D1.6	Role of bureaucracy in the non-development of Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	84
7	D1.7	Reasons for the rift between tribals and non-tribals of Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	85
8	D1.8	Opinion as to the linear fragmentation of the tribal population as responsible for political instability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	87
9	D1.9	Opinion as to whether vested interests of the politicians responsible for the instability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	88
10	D1.10	Opinion as to whether, the sheer number of political parties responsible for instability in Jharkhand and age-wise	90

		distribution of respondents
11	D1.11	Opinion as to the consequences of political instability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	91
12	D1.12	Opinion as to politicians ruining the state of Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	93
13	D1.13	The role of mass media in the political instability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	94
14	D1.14	The approach of newspapers about stability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	96
15	D1.15	The approach of electronic media about stability in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	97
16	D1.16	Opinion about the ownership patterns of newspapers in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	99
17	D1.17	Opinion about the ownership patterns of electronic media in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	100
18	D1.18	Opinion about the value orientation of media in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	102
19	D1.19	Opinion about the issues that need mass media focus in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	103
20	D1.20	Opinion about the areas in need of media promotion in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	105
21	D1.21	Opinion as to the rating of mass media performance in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	106

22	D1.22	Suggestions, as to how to improve the professional performance level of media persons in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	107
23	D1.23	Suggestions, as to how to improve the role of media in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	108
24	D1.24	Opinion, as to what sort of relationship the politicians should have with media in Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	110
25	D1.25	Opinion, as to the attitude of media persons towards political class and age-wise distribution of respondents	111
26	D1.26	Opinion, as to how media should be like in the state of Jharkhand and age-wise distribution of respondents	112