ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work is dedicated to my late mother Smt. Mira Das, who has been the guiding light in my life and I miss her on this day.

I am indebted to my guide Assistant Professor Dr Silajit Guha, Assistant professor, Department of Mass Communication, Assam University, Silchar for his valuable guidance, encouragement and cooperation during the last four years of this study. He has been extremely patient with my repeated queries and has always shown me the right way.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Professor Gyan Prakash Pandey, Head, Department of Mass Communication for his constant encouragement. I am also thankful to all the faculty members of Department of Mass Communication, Assam University for their inspirational words.

I am also grateful to the officials of The Nehru Memorial Library, New Delhi, and Delhi Public Library. They have been extremely helpful and without them it wouldn't have been possible for me to collect the required data for the thesis.

My sincere thanks also go to my friends Mr. Tomojit Bhattacharjee, Dr. Koyel Guha, Mr. Samrat Paul and Mr. Goirick Brahmachari for being the pillar of strength throughout the study. I also want to acknowledge the help and support extended by my colleagues and my boss Mr. M R Mishra at the Press Trust Of India.

I forever remain indebted to my father Mr Subash Chandra Das, who has always encouraged me. I also owe this to my brother Mr. Chintu Das and sister Ms. Pinky Das who have always been a constant source of strength for me.

Lastly, I would like to thank all my friends and each individual who have extended their support, in the progress of this research work and offered unconditional help at various stages.
