

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to acknowledge my debt to my supervisor Prof. Gopalji Mishra for his continuous support and guidance. His assistance and suggestions helped me through out the study. His ideas and critical suggestions were always a constant source of inspiration during the study. I am equally obliged to Prof. Asok Sarkar, my co-supervisor who helped me to shape the entire study. Any acknowledgement of gratitude in words to Prof. Gopalji Mishra and Prof. Asok Sarkar will not be sufficient here.

I want to express my heart felt gratitude to Dr. S.S. Dhar, the Ex. Principal of Silchar Medical College & Hospital and Dr. Shekhar Chakravarty, the Vice Principal of Silchar Medical College & Hospital for giving me the permission to collect data from the OPD of the department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology and to avail the library facility of Silchar Medical College & Hospital.

I would also like to thank Dr. Subrata Bhattacharjee and Dr. Banashree Bhadra for their grand support during the study. They helped me with the medical terms and terminologies and also in the review of the literature.

I shall remain ever indebted to Dr. M. Gangabhusan and Dr. Tarun Bikash Sukai for their tremendous help during the study. It is worthwhile to mention that without their support this study would not have been completed. I am also thankful to Dr. B.S. Gunjal, Dr. S. Dutta and Dr. Kathiresan L for their support and help.

I am gratified to all the teachers and faculty of the department of Social Work for their cooperation and collaboration.

For the statistical assistance I would like to thank Mr. S. Goswami, Lecturer of Statistics from G.C. College.

It will be unlawful if I don't mention my gratitude towards the respondents under the study. They provided me with the necessary data without which the study was not possible.

During the whole study, the key person who stood beside me in each and every phase of my life is my mother. Her continuous encouragement and sacrifice always pulled me towards the completion of my work. I will forever remain obliged to my parents late Rathindra Bhattacharjya and Mrs. Shukla Bhattacharjya for their immeasurable contribution in my life and it's their nurture which made 'me' whatever I am today.
