

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a pleasant duty to thank all who have helped me in various ways to complete this research. Joining a research programme as a novice with no research knowledge, it was my supervisor, Dr. Tarun Bikash Sukai who instilled in me with all the fundamentals of research. So, primarily I have been able to carry out this study due to invaluable guidance and encouragement of my learned supervisor who helped me from the beginning of the research till the end. I am truly thankful to him.

I also record my gratefulness to my co-supervisor, Dr. Subhabratta Dutta for his support and inspiration despite being the Head of Department of Social Work and Dean of Students' Welfare, Assam University, he spared his time for me.

I also acknowledge the substantial assistance received from the respondents from all the 15 villages for the information, cooperation and hospitality; my friends and their family members, relatives and others residing in different villages for their travelling company and guidance during fieldwork. My dearest friends Laishram Priyadarshini Devi and Henia Lowli did have time for me always whenever I needed their help inspite of their busiest days. Their kind assistance kept me going even when the journey to accomplish this research was not convenient. My uncle, Kholi Loli, (Senior Lecturer, Hill College Tadubi, Government of Manipur), Sir X. P. Mao, Professor, Department of Philosophy, North Eastern Hill University (NEHU), Fr. Alphonsus, North-Eastern Social Research Centre (NESRC), Guwahati and Dr. Yarsho, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Assam University Silchar helped me with valuable inputs during consultation. The cooperation and interest shown in this research by the leaders and elders also encouraged me greatly. I record special thanks to all of them.

I am also thankful to Deputy Commissioner's Office Senapati, DRDA Office Senapati, Sub-Division Office, Tadubi, the Directorate of Agriculture, Imphal, Manipur, District Agriculture Office, Senapati, District Horticulture and Soil Conservation Office, Senapati, Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK), Senapati, and other government departments for their co-operation and support by providing required materials. I gratefully acknowledge Indian Council of Social Science Research-North-Eastern Regional Centre (ICSSR-NERC) for the research guidance that I received from them during the workshop. I also acknowledge the library staff of NEHU, NESRC, ICSSR-NERC, Tribal Research Institute, Imphal, Manipur University and Central Agricultural University Imphal for their assistance to get relevant materials during my visit.

I am also very thankful to Sir Ningthoujam Jiban Singh, Assistant Professor of Mathematics Department of Assam University, Silchar and his student Pinku Nath, Dr. Kathiresan. L. Assistant Professor from the department of Social Work, Assam University and my friends Heizule Hegeu and Lachit Deka for helping me in the statistical analysis.

Prof. R.R. Dhamala, the Dean, J S School of Social Sciences; Prof G. Mishra, Dr. M. Tineshowri Devi, other teaching and non-teaching staff members, scholars, junior students, seniors of Social Work Department; and friends at Assam University and NEHU have also helped me in various ways. I remain indebted to all of them.

In a special way, I acknowledge the financial support awarded to me by UGC under Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship (RGNF). Finally, I thank my family who longingly waited for the time to complete this work to get me back home, supported with every possible means.
